| Overview | Perth Amboy Public School scholars are among the best and brightest across the land. We are committed to creating learning opportunities for students to engage in conversations where they will recognize the value and power of their voice. In this competition we challenge you to examine the words "equity," "diversity" and "inclusion." Identify what makes you and others unique, and how we can be more inclusive. Consider: Have you ever felt excluded? How did that make you feel? What did you learn from that experience? We believe that a community that engages in practices celebrating diversity, promoting equity and inclusion; and securing "liberty and justice for all" fosters a positive and supportive environment for learners to grow into their potential. We appreciate your uniqueness and we look forward to reading your thoughts. |
| Topic | Option 1: What makes someone unique? What are some of the challenges and opportunities that come from differences among people? Think of past or current or events as well as your own experiences and consider how they work together to inform your understanding of diversity. What is a way to create a more inclusive school, Perth Amboy community, or world? Option 2: Choose one of the quotes below to discuss in detail. Give evidence from your own experience and current and/or historical |
