FIII out event details, but DO NOT mention students by name that will be added in the participant(s) details

there is a need for confidentiality here, since parents of all involved will eventually see the report in the system. If writing details about an incident involving more than one student, each must be in a separate participant section for the same event. For example, when describing event, write "altercation with another student in class" for example. If two students were involved, then you will need 2 participant sections.
